

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

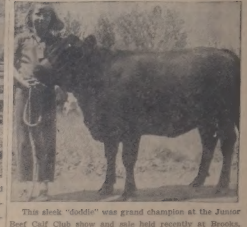

WILD CHASE RESULTS IN ONE DEATH, TWO WRECKED CARS—In a brief but wild chase, a stolen car, followed by police, killed one person, injured others, crashed into a parked taxi-cab and snagged off a cement telephone pole on Toronto streets. The car, stolen in Burlington, was seen by police in Toronto who gave chase. Of eight occupants of the car, three are being held by police, five disappeared when the car stopped. The stolen car is shown, (right), the wrecked cab, (left).

"KIDS' KARNIVAL" QUEEN—Queen of the carnival, was the title bestowed on Shirley Salter, 11, seen here, at a "Kids' Karnival" in Walsland, sponsored by Optimists club and Boys Town. For the night one test children brought polliwogs, lambs, rabbits, cats and turtles.

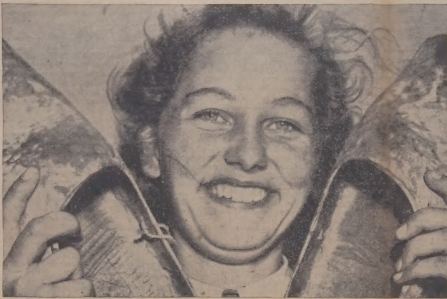

JUNIOR CLUBS—Four junior beef club chubs and one junior seed club from the Carmans district combined for an organized tour of the University of Manitoba and the famed Richardson Farm, near Winnipeg. During their visit they were shown the famous Short-horn bull, Mount Barker. He is being held here by Bill Jones.

This sleek "doddie" was grand champion at the Junior Beef Club show and mile held recently at Brooks, Alta., and commanded the fat price of 50 cents for each of his 674 pounds. He is being held here by his proud owner, Violeta Swanson, of Scotland.

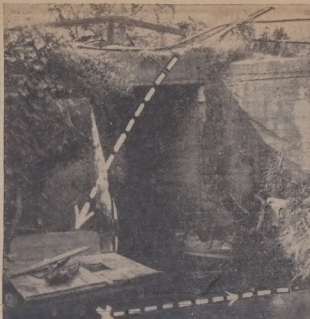

SOUGHT BY POLICE, KIDNAPING CHARGE—Madge Meredith, movie starlet, is being sought by police on suspicion of robbery, kidnaping and attempted murder. Nicholas Cosentino, 34, who identified himself as the actress' business manager, said she ordered him abducted and "busted to a pulp" after a row in which she refused to return property he decided her to hide from his wife's lawyers. He also claimed she had hired thugs to have him "bumped off."

LOVE LAUGHS AT LOCKSMITHS—AND OCEANS, TOO—Heading for the home of her Canadian fiancé in Ottawa, happy Romanian Jewess from The Hague, is seen as she arrived in Montreal with 1,000 other Dutch immigrants aboard the liner S.S. Waterman. She is engaged to Bud Keenan, a medical student attending Queen's University, who met her while serving in the Canadian army overseas.

PHOTO MAY SOLVE ROBBERY—Photograph, taken by Chas. Davidson, Winnipeg street photographer, may help police solve the $400 robbery of a finance company by two hooded men. Miss Davidson took pictures of two men who answer the robbers' description as they left the building.

TWO WOMEN, CHILD ESCAPE AS TRUCK PLUNGES INTO CREEK—Trapped in truck, Mrs. Jean Macneuse, 43, was barely able to keep her head above water until help arrived. Truck stalled on hill, went out of control, and plunged through rail of bridge. The dotted line shows where Mrs. Williams went to shore with her daughter.

Driver of truck which plunged into Big Creek, near Delhi, Ont., Mrs. Annie Williams was injured.

Daughter Phyllis, age four, was rescued by mother from creek.

NOVECENTO MASTERPIECE—Sold at the Hays sale held in Toronto recently for $10,000, to the Government of Alberta, for use in the Artificial Rebreathing unit at the Oude School of Agriculture. Left to right: Harry Hays, R. P. Gable, J. W. Hunsford, R. E. Hunsford, Gen. Glick, Jack Hays and Tom Hays; all carrying the Hays banners come from Edmonton, Alberta.

Arnette Gerben sold for $11,000 to Armstrong Bros., Brampton, Ont., at the recent Hays dispersal sale. Left to right: Harry Hays, E. Armstrong, Cliff Chant, herdsman for Armstrong Bros., Tom Hays and Jack Hays.

JAP WAR CRIMINALS, ON WAY TO EXECUTION, JEER AT CROWD—Death ride for two Japanese war criminals was like carnival to thousands of Chinese who lined Shanghai streets to watch the doomed pair, Hiroshi Yonemura, 53, and Jiro Shimoto, 29, ride by in truck, centre, background. Shintoists laughed and jeered at the crowd all along the parade route. After the execution, the crowd leaped their bodies.

DECORATED WITH THE ORDER OF THE ROLLING PIN—Pinning a rolling pin emblem on Hon. Helen Love, Social Credit leader, is Mrs. Keith Beveridge, one of 200 members of the Housewives Consumer League in Ottawa to protest high prices. The housewives, who said they had economic advice in drawing up a list, met Hon. Douglas Abbott, minister of finance.

FLOODS, BROKEN LEVEES—AND NOW EARTHQUAKES—An earthquake was felt in a 20-mile area, surrounding St. Louis, Mo., but authorities said only minor damage was reported. The tremor lasted for 11 minutes but it did not harm levees like the one shown in this picture piled high with wreckage.

PRIZE-WINNERS AT AGINCOURT CARNIVAL—Poses of their prize-winning pets at the Agincourt Lions club carnival are Vera Roychick, (left), with guinea pig, and Lois Parr and her pup "Buddy," Big Joe, (right), the St. Bernard won with Michele Nelson, age, was prize for biggest dog in the show.

